

Show Me KC Schools, RIKC, and Children's TLC invite you to a conversation for parents of children with special needs

Parenting Children with Special Needs

(and how to ensure a successful and supportive school experience)

Thursday, September 10, 6:30-8 pm
Kauffman Conference Center
4801 Rockhill Road
Featuring Dr. Patty Smith

Join fellow KC parents and caregivers for an important conversation facilitated by Dr. Patty Smith, former special education teacher and administrator, and a panel of parents about how to get the best education for your child with special needs. Topics addressed:

- How do I know if my child might need additional support when he or she starts school?
- What characteristics do I look for in a school to support my child?
- How do I advocate for my child with special needs?

Register for this free event at showmekcschools.org

Show Me KC Schools is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization created to help KC parents find the right school for their child.