Frequently Asked Questions

Why does the Delta Sigma Phi offer scholarships?

Strong academic credentials and effective leadership skills have become standard requirements for undergraduates who will be entering the competitive job market or enrolling in graduate school. Students today must not only be prepared to lead people and organizations, but also demonstrate strong academic standing in their chosen field of study.

Do I have to join Delta Sigma Phi to receive the scholarship?

No. The Men of Achievement Scholarship is available to any man that is a graduating senior and planning to attend the University of Missouri.

Is this Scholarship renewable?

No. The scholarship is one time only.

How is the money distributed to the students?

The scholarship will be awarded after the beginning of the academic semester, and is payable to the student after verification of attendance at the University of Missouri. A check will be paid to the University of Missouri Registrar's office under the recipient's myZou number.
